

Response from Jack Warndorf

Rick:

It's hard for me to concentrate on sailing in the middle of duck hunting season but I'll try.

1 My opinion of the 2007 season was that it was an excellent season.

2 Changes: I would not be opposed to less races...seems the season was a little long.

3 Committee boat: The day I did duty everything seemed to work OK.

4 A professional committee duty crew would be wonderful...could we afford the payroll expense?? If not then the way we did it last year seemed fair.

5 I think our past events have been fine & they are adequate.

6 Have an additional dues charge to race participants to finance a race committee crew.

In closing want you to know you did a great job last year & greatly appreciate all the time & effort you put into the racing program.
